Superintendent Report

Dr. Elsberry shared with the Board a proclamation by the Governor regarding metric week. She then showed the metric quiz posed to the students of Early College High School as an example of the events of Metric Week in Horry County Schools.

Dr. Elsberry then commended the principals of the schools that had exceptional SAT and ACT scores, noting that the scores are indicative of the work being done at the schools under their leadership. The Superintendent then reminded the Board that the Principal for a Day event was scheduled for the next day. She noted that this historic event brings in 54 leaders in our community to run our schools for a day. Dr. Elsberry invited the Board to come hear the comments of the “Principals” at the meeting on Wednesday morning.

Dr. Elsberry then asked HT Lee and April Scott to share details about the Google CS First program recently started in middle schools. Mr. Lee showed the Board a short video which explained the program being offered at many middle schools at no cost to the district or student. April Scott, principal of Forestbrook Middle School, explained the program and commended the ready-to-go kit which helped launch a successful program. Ms. McIlrath asked how many schools are currently offering this program. Mr. Lee answered that half of the middle schools in the District are participating.

Dr. Elsberry then asked Jan Hucks and Megan Beattie, teachers at Carolina Forest High School, to speak to the Board regarding the use of technology in their classrooms.

Ms. Hucks and Ms. Beattie explained their use of a flipped classroom. In this new teaching tool, the lessons are recorded for students to watch at home, then the students complete the “homework” in class. This allows student to watch the video as many times as needed to understand the lesson and to have any questions answered while working on the problems. Ms. Beattie added that she has also taught students that are absent by using Skype. This allows full participation in class and reduces the burden of make-up work.

Ms. McIlrath asked how other schools in the District can utilize this method. Ms. Beattie answered that the students have been instrumental in letting others, including teachers, know about this. Ms. Hucks added that veteran teachers need to see the benefits of utilizing technology in this capacity. Mr. Poston suggested that these resources be shared with other teachers to alleviate the need to create the lessons at each school.

Dr. Elsberry added that learning specialists and instructional coaches ensure best practices like these seen tonight are shared from school to school.
