

Requested Funds for Curriculum and Assessment Development

2014-2015

Purpose of Funds: Pay for teachers who complete curriculum and assessment work outside of contract hours

Proposed Curriculum and Assessment Development Work	Estimated Cost
K-5 ELA
• Revise and further develop curriculum maps, including lesson assessments	7,200
K-5 Math
• Revise and further develop curriculum maps, including lesson assessments and various other items to support planning for Everyday Math	8,000
K-5 Science
• Revise benchmarks and develop new assessment items and performance tasks	18,200
K-5 Social Studies
• Revise benchmarks and develop new assessment items and performance tasks	11,520
Middle School ELA
• Revise and further develop curriculum maps, including lesson assessments (new textbook adoption requires more revisions and involvement of teachers)	77,520
Middle School Math
• Revise and further develop curriculum maps, including lesson assessments	22,500
Middle School ELA- Interventions
• Revise and further develop pacing guides and lesson assessments	2,340
Middle School Math- Interventions
• Revise and further develop pacing guides and lesson assessments	2,340
Middle School Science
• Revise curriculum maps and edit existing benchmark items and create new assessment items	25,040
Middle School Social Studies
• Revise curriculum maps and assessments for benchmarking	$30,240
High School ELA
• Revise and further develop curriculum maps, common assessments, and performance tasks (possible new textbook adoption may require more revisions and involvement of teachers)	63,000
High School Math
• Revise curriculum maps and create formative assessments and performance tasks	22,500
High School Science
• Revise curriculum maps, edit existing benchmark items, and create new assessment items	34,400
High School Social Studies
• Revise curriculum maps, edit existing benchmark items, and create new assessment items	26,880
Total	351,680