Interpretation: I interpret this policy to mean...

All schools will have comprehensive programs teaching character development and citizenship to help students gain lifelong skills to make them better members of society at large.

Evidence of Status of Compliance:

We are in full compliance of this policy as demonstrated below.

The District's schools, students, and staff have had many accomplishments during the last year related to the characteristics and values that contribute to citizenship and personal student success. They include:

Mock Trial – Horry County middle and high schools compete each year in Mock Trial at both the regional and state levels.

We The People – We the People materials are utilized to support teaching of foundational principles of American democracy and of the Constitution.

After-School Ethics and Leadership Academy (ASEA) – This program is offered for sixth-grade students in Horry County Schools. The Jackson Family Center for Ethics and Values at Coastal Carolina University hosts this program. Students are provided an opportunity to learn about the importance of character and leadership skills. Activities led by Jackson Scholars include group discussion and encourage students to ask questions, make connections, illustrate their thoughts, and share opinions. This was the first exposure to college life for many of the students participating.

Leadership Initiative – Having been in place for over six years in the Myrtle Beach Area Cluster, this initiative encourages students to grow in their self-confidence while developing responsibility, creativity, and problem-solving and communication skills.

Character Development Measure on State Report Cards

The school report card measures five dimensions of character development: schoolwide character integration, schoolwide planning, schoolwide professional development, assessment and evaluation, and school-community partnership.

Dimension of Character Development	0 Points	1 Point	2 Points	3 Points	4 Points
Schoolwide Character Integration	We do not embed lessons of character in classroom instruction.	We embed lessons of character in classroom instruction in one subject area.	We embed lessons of character in classroom instruction in two subject areas.	We embed lessons of character in classroom instruction in three or four subject areas and in some extracurricular settings.	We embed lessons of character in classroom instruction in all subject areas and throughout school life.
Schoolwide Planning	There is no annual or on-going planning for character education in the school.	We are in the process of developing a plan for character education in the school.	Our plan for character education focuses solely on students.	Our plan for character education focuses on students and staff.*	Our plan for character education focuses on students, staff, parents, and the broader community.
Schoolwide Professional Development	None of our staff have participated in character-related professional development this year.	From 1 to 25 percent of our staff have participated in or facilitated character-related professional development this year.	From 26 to 50 percent of our staff have participated in or facilitated character-related professional development this year.	From 51 to 75 percent of our staff have participated in or facilitated character-related professional development this year.	From 76 to 100 percent of our staff have participated in or facilitated character-related professional development this year.
Assessment and Evaluation	We have not conducted a character-related assessment in our school.	We have conducted a character-related needs assessment.	We have assessed implementation of our character development initiative and have used the results to improve the initiative.	We have assessed the benefits of our character development initiative for students, staff, and/or parents and have used the results to improve the initiative.	We have used the results of our character-related assessments to effect change in school and/or district policies and procedures.
School-Community Partnership	We do not have a school-community partnership.	We have a school-community partnership, but it does not address character development issues.	We have a school-community partnership that discusses character development issues.	We have a school-community partnership that implements school-based character development activities.	We have a school-community partnership that implements both school- and community-based character development activities.

* The term "staff" includes administrators, teachers, support staff, and special services personnel.

 In addition to character development training that includes the word "character" in the title, schoolwide character-related professional development also includes, but is not limited to, training in violence prevention, crisis intervention, conflict resolution, and proactive classroom/school management.

 A formal agreement with business and/or community organizations.
